DESIGNING HOMES AROUND REAL LIFE

At JAD Global, our homes are designed around the people who live in them. We translate our values of wellness into your own vertical sanctuary.

Rooms that flow naturally, materials that feel grounding, and layouts shaped with your comfort in mind.

A HOME THAT SETTLES YOUR SENSES

Your sanctuary should feel personal. A place where your senses settle, your thoughts clear, and your day naturally softens. At JAD Global, this feeling begins with design choices that quietly support you.

The way light moves through your home, how each room encourages restoration, and how sound, space, and materiality are shaped to ease your routines.

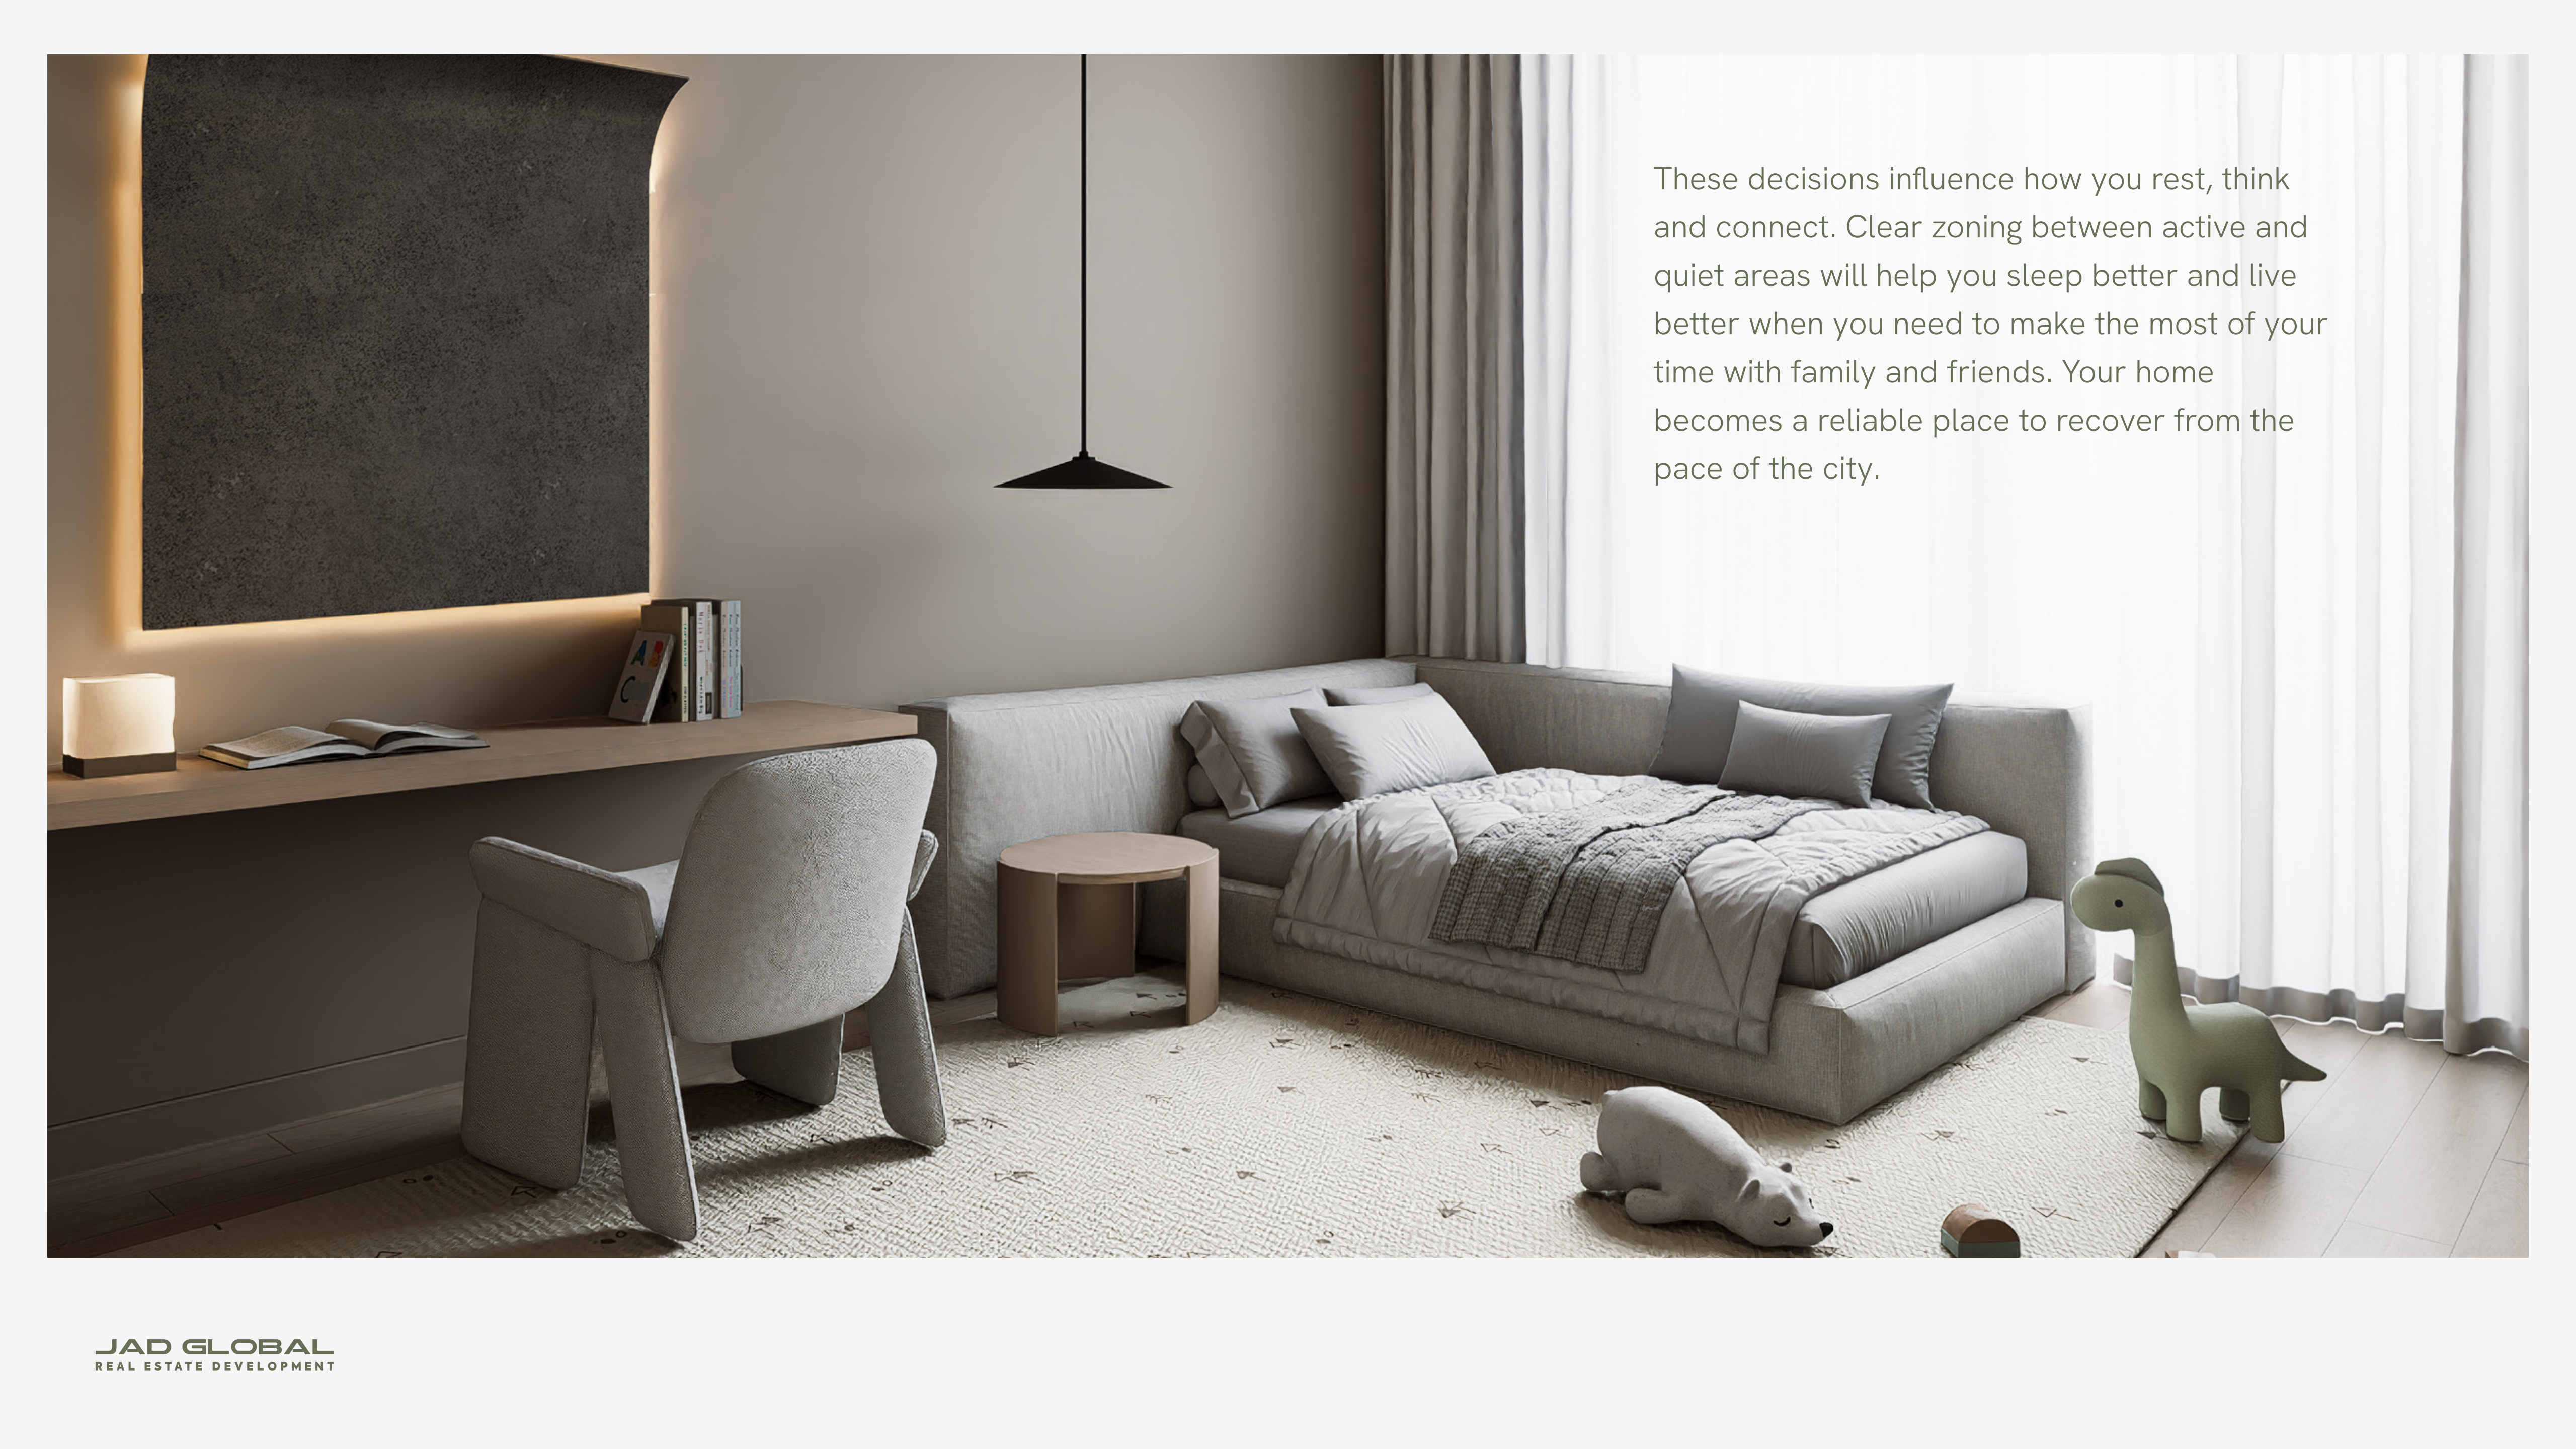

THE DESIGN BEHIND THE CALM

At J188, spaces are shaped to make life feel lighter the moment you step inside. Rooms open in a way that naturally slows your breathing. Corners feel soft, colours feel luminous. Light lands where you need it most – bright when you want energy, gentle when the day winds down. It's the kind of design you don't have to learn.

Neuroarchitecture focuses on how the built environment influences overall wellbeing. Room proportions are planned to create visual balance and reduce cognitive load. Movement paths are direct and uncluttered, allowing you to navigate the home without interruption. Your home has finishes selected for their calming effect, with consistent tones and surfaces that create a unified environment.

These decisions influence how you rest, think and connect. Clear zoning between active and quiet areas will help you sleep better and live better when you need to make the most of your time with family and friends. Your home becomes a reliable place to recover from the pace of the city.

BODY

Wellness-led amenities inspire movement and vitality, including indoor and outdoor fitness centers, a padel court, sauna, indoor and outdoor kids play areas and the Skyline Pool for laps or leisure.

MIND

Layouts, materials, and acoustic planning enhance focus and mental wellbeing, with circadian lighting throughout the building and residences.

SOUL

Overlooking the creek, the sky view deck and the various shared spaces are designed for you to connect with others and connect with yourself.

FINANCE

An investment that flourishes, offering not only lifestyle but lasting value for both end-users and long-term rental demand.

An aerial photograph of a modern residential complex. In the foreground, a large, rectangular swimming pool with a light blue finish is visible. To the right of the pool, there is a lounge area with four white lounge chairs and a large, leafy tree. In the background, a tennis court with a green surface and white lines is visible, with the word 'J188' written vertically on the court's netting. The tennis court is surrounded by more trees and a modern building with a light-colored facade and large windows. The overall scene is well-maintained and lush with greenery.

J188 is more than a collection of residences - it is a curated environment where amenities, social areas, and community come together to create an ambient lifestyle for you.

AT THE HEART OF HERITAGE & HORIZON

Perfectly placed in Al Jaddaf, between Downtown Dubai and Dubai Creek, J188 connects you to culture, nature, and the city's key destinations, while preserving a calm residential atmosphere.

Landmarks such as Mohammed Bin Rashid Library, Jameel Arts Centre, and the Floating Museum of Arts bring the arts to your doorstep, with healthcare, schools, and transit close by.

DESIGNED WITHIN.

INSPIRED BEYOND.

Minimalist design with natural warmth creates modern, welcoming spaces. Clean lines balance textural richness, while façades are crafted to play with light and shadow and enhance interior calm.

Inside each apartment, floor-to-ceiling windows fill rooms with natural daylight and frame city and creek views. Soft, neutral tones and natural materials encourage relaxation and refresh the senses.

Layouts prioritize flexibility and intuitive flow for living, working, and unwinding. High ceilings open the space, acoustic planning reduces outside noise, and advanced filtered air and water systems keep the home feeling fresh and comfortable.

CRAFTED FOR LIFE. CURATED FOR YOU.

Quality shows in every touchpoint, from durable, timeless finishes to seamless cabinetry. Materials feel aesthetic yet functional and are built to last and age beautifully. Function meets elegance throughout.

NATURAL ELEMENTS.

Nature-inspired textiles and finishes create warmth and grounding. Tone-on-tone palettes support calm. Wooden flooring textures are selected for comfort and daily wellbeing.

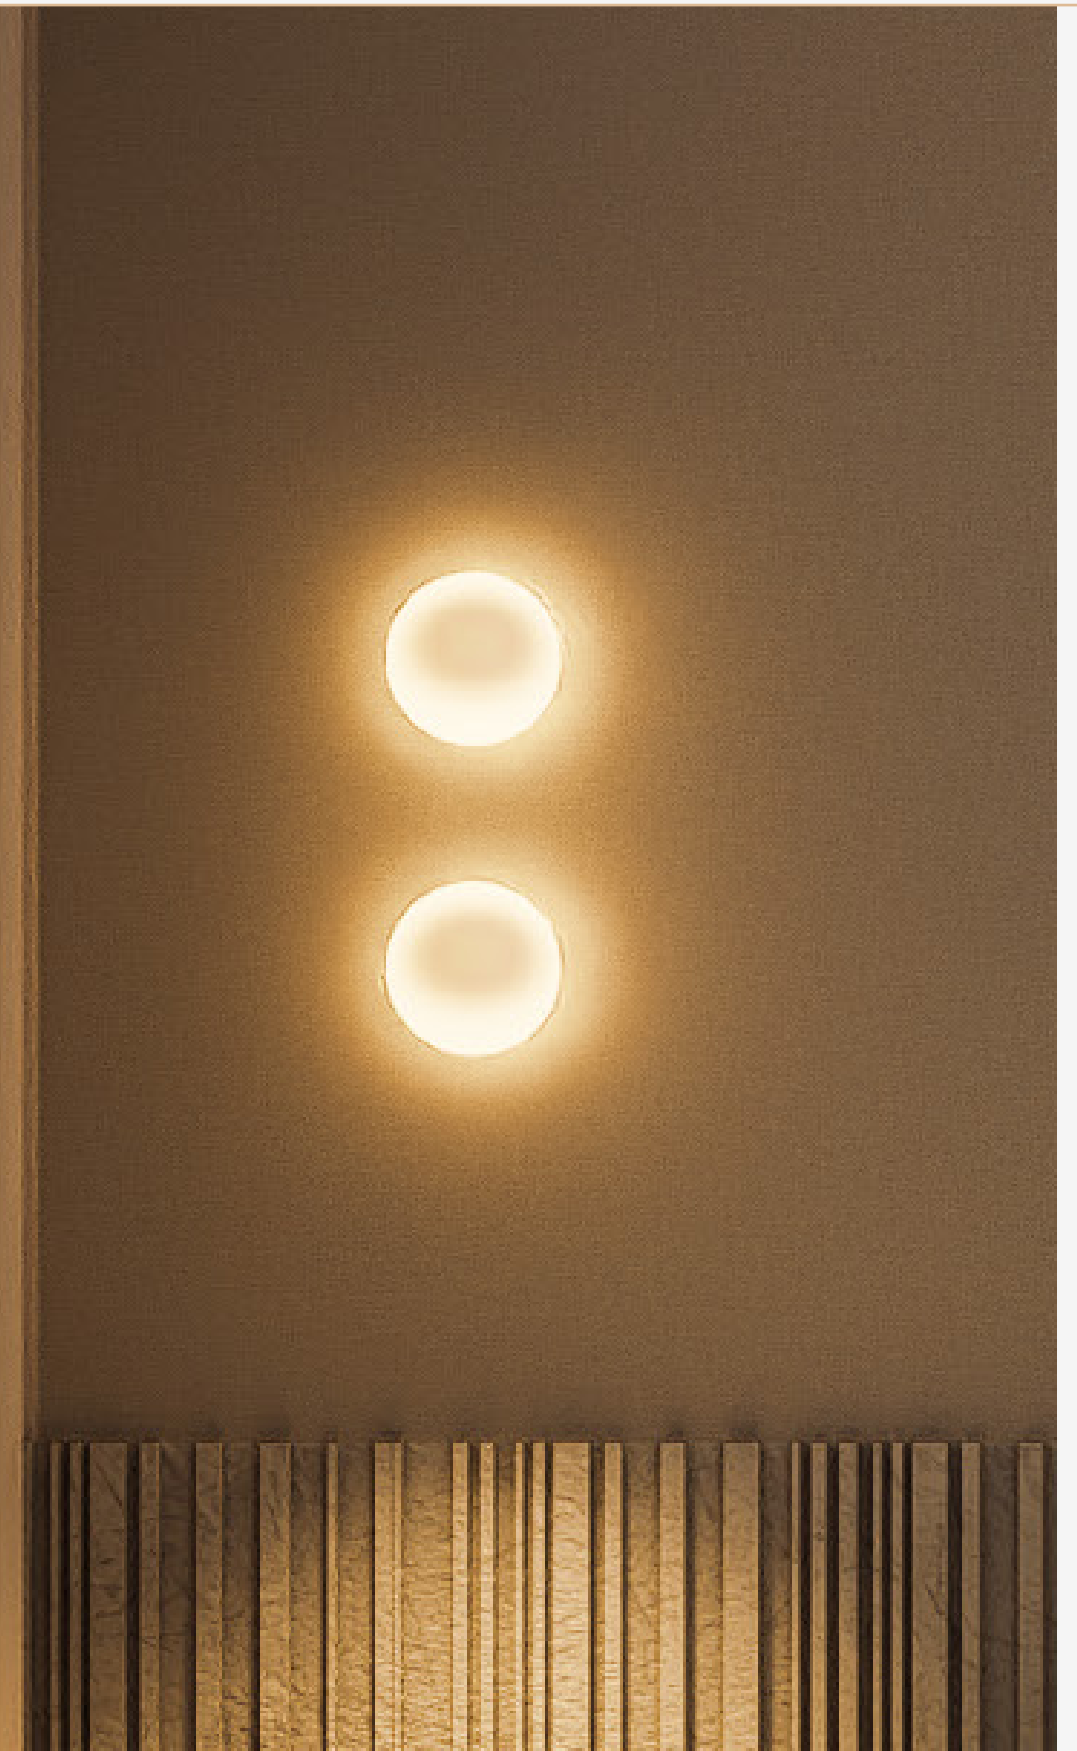

TIMELESS CALM.

ILLUMINATED BY NATURE.

GUIDED BY RHYTHM.

Circadian interior lighting supports natural body cycles, with indirect illumination for balance, maximized daylight for energy, and thoughtful night lighting for relaxation.

QUIET SPACES.

COMPLETE PRIVACY.

Acoustic window and door systems reduce external noise. Strategic planning protects visual privacy. Layered façades, screens, and landscape buffers create comfort without compromise. Early acoustic studies minimize sound transfer between apartments and common areas.
